

The GSA-ALP PROCEDURE (alternative load path transfer) is generally applicable for openings and shear reinforcements in beams. Openings up to 50 % of the beam height can be made without weakening the shear resistance.

more infos